VITAMIN

01

The Vitamin C market remains firm, with producers raising quotations to USD 3.21/kg, driving transaction prices up to USD 2.5–2.7/kg, indicating a clear upward shift in price levels.

AMINO ACID

02

Lysine producers are seeing solid order intake, with continued price increases reflected in the trading market. Current quotations for 98.5% lysine are USD 1.05-1.18/kg. Downstream buyers are restocking on demand with cautious sentiment, and prices are expected to trend slightly upward in the short term.

API

03

Oxytetracycline HCl prices have been pushed up by raw material cost fluctuations, with tighter supply from producers. Current transaction levels are USD 12.31–12.83/kg, and prices are expected to remain firm in the short term.

FOOD ADDITIVE

04

BYHEALTH stated that its international expansion will be driven by localized demand, with a focus on Southeast Asia. The company plans to accelerate offline channel expansion while boosting online growth. In 2026, it aims to restore and grow across traditional e-commerce, interest-based e-commerce, cross-border, and retail channels, with online channels serving as the primary growth driver.
